Our Reading program is coming along wonderfully! Montage students have enjoyed reading at all levels. The younger students are learning concepts of print: left to right, top to bottom, one-to-one correspondence of printed word to written word, as well as sight words. The higher reading levels are reading to obtain information. They have recently read books on Martin Luther King, Jr., Roberto Clemente and Abraham Lincoln. They are also working on comprehension and vocabulary within their reading groups. They have all come a very long way since the beginning of the year.

They seem to have obtained a
LOVE FOR READING!!
